
JAIME ARELLANO QUINTANA

Lawyer from Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile; Master of Laws (LLM) from Universidad Interamericana de Puerto Rico and Master of Public Administration and Policy Analysis (MPA) from American University.

Founding partner of the international consulting firm Justicia Latinoamérica (JUSLAT); executive secretary of the Misión Internacional de Observación of the appointment processes of High Authorities of the Justice Systems (MIO) in Honduras, Ecuador, Peru and Mexico.

From 2014 to 2021 he was executive director of the Centro de Estudios de Justicia de las Américas (JSCA) of OAS. He served as a prosecutor for CORFO.

Between 2000 and 2006 he was undersecretary of Justice and head director of Aguas Andinas from 2006 to 2020.

Professor in different programs, universities and judicial and prosecutorial academies in Latin America, as well as in international diploma courses, postgraduate and master's degrees at the Universidad Alberto Hurtado de Chile, UNAM (Mexico) and the University of Salamanca (Spain), among others.